

CURRICULUM VITAE

Herbert A. Igbanugo, Esq. is the founding shareholder of Igbanugo Partners Int'l Law Firm, P.L.L.C. (Igbanugo Partners), a certified 8(a)/small disadvantaged business entity, and was also a founding partner of the former law firm of Blackwell Igbanugo P.A which was the largest black controlled law firm in the United States between 2003-2006. Born in Nigeria, he received his undergraduate degrees in International Relations and Economics from the University of Minnesota in 1983 and 1984 respectively, and his Juris Doctor Degree from Hamline University School of Law in 1987. He heads Igbanugo Partners' International Trade Law practice group and its consulting division, Afrique Sub-Sahara Strategies LTD (AQS) focusing exclusively on Sub-Saharan Africa (SSA).

In 2000, he was invited to participate as a delegate in former President William Jefferson Clinton's historic trip to SSA. Over the past two decades, he has regularly traveled to Africa developing crucial relationships in both the governmental and private sectors and studying political/economic trends in the region. He is a member of the Minnesota and New York State Bar Associations and is admitted to practice before numerous U.S. Federal District Courts, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth Circuit Courts of Appeals, the U.S. Court of International Trade, and the U.S. Supreme Court.

Mr. Igbanugo's Afrique Sub-Sahara Strategies LTD (AQS) also offers consulting and anti-corruption training and advisory services. Mr. Igbanugo is well versed in African-governmental relations development, lobbying and/or interest advocacy as well as U.S. government relations and public policy, including issue advocacy (e.g., debt relief, normalization of trade before federal and state decision makers, legislative drafting and analysis, legislative and executive branch monitoring on behalf of African governments, industries and business organizations). He also generally provides the privilege of access to "top players" or difficult to reach high-level "movers and shakers" within SSA governments and the private sector, as well as information currency and political intelligence.

Mr. Igbanugo also heads the U.S. Immigration & Nationality Law practice group at Igbanugo Partners. Mr. Igbanugo has substantial experience with the complex maze of U.S. Immigration and Customs legislations and regulations of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (USCIS). He assists corporations and other types of organizations with capacity building and a myriad of immigration matters associated with the hiring and intra-company transfers of foreign nationals for temporary or permanent assignments in the United States and the countries of Sub-Saharan Africa.

Selected as a "2006, 2007 and 2008 Minnesota SuperLawyer," he is known and respected in the Minnesota legal community, and has been an adjunct professor of law at Hamline University and guest lecturer at the William Mitchell College of Law (St. Paul, Minnesota). He is also a frequent faculty participant and author for the Minnesota Institute of Legal Education, American Immigration Lawyers Association, The Africa World Business Congress, African Business Roundtable, NEPAD Business Group and the Nigeria-African Business Roundtable.

Through solid, strategic alliances and an arsenal that includes an integrated, high-performing team comprised of highly talented, dedicated and experienced lawyers and consulting professionals across the United States and Africa, Igbanugo Partners/AQS has achieved the economies of scale enjoyed by very large law and consulting firms. It is clear to us that only by leveraging the unique strengths and capabilities of our “dream team” of strategic alliance partners and professionals can we tackle the developmental challenges of SSA such as eradicating corruption, as well as, modernizing African courts.

Igbanugo Partners is endowed with the institutional expertise to articulate, design, advice on, and manage anti-corruption training and justice reform projects in SSA that incorporate capacity building and reflect local institutional realities. Mr. Igbanugo firmly believes that the key to success in building democratic SSA states free from corruption, and with efficient economies comes from enhancing transparency and the rule of law through a focus on the courts and the reform of the judiciary.
